The Chicago Tribune.

VOL. XXI. CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1867. NUMBER 137.

EUROPE.

The Roman Question.

A Second Note from France Urging the Assembling of a General Conference.

An Italian Note Asking the Great Powers to Decide Against Such Meeting.

French Troops Withdrawn from Rome to Civita Vecchia.

Further Account of the Fenian Troubles in Dublin.

BY OCEAN TELEGRAPH.

The Roman Question.

ANOTHER NOTE FROM FRANCE TO ENGLAND IN THE PROPOSED GENERAL CONFERENCE.

PARIS, Nov. 11—Evening.

The French Government has issued a second note in regard to the proposed conference on the Roman question. In this note even the Ultramontane powers of Europe are called on participate. It is thought they will all decline.

ITALY OPPOSED TO THE CALLING OF A CONFERENCE.

FLORENCE, Nov. 11—Evening.

The government of Italy, which is hostile to the proposed conference, has sent a note to the European powers to enable them to decide against the necessity of any conference whatever. In this note the Roman question is discussed from the Italian standpoint. Details have not transpired.

FRENCH TROOPS WITHDRAWN FROM ROME TO CIVITA VECCHIA.

PARIS, Nov. 11.

The Moniteur, in an official column, to-day announces that the Emperor, believing that Italy is resolved to fulfill her duty and obtain all her obligations under the September convention, has withdrawn the French troops from the city of Rome, and other parts of the Papal territory, to Civita Vecchia.

AN APPOINTMENT IN THE ITALIAN CHURCH.

ROME, Nov. 12.

Rear Admiral Prozens del Sabbione is appointed Minister of Marine. His acceptance of the post completes the cabinet of Menabrea.

Great Britain.

SERIOUS RIOT AT OXFORD.

LONDON, Nov. 1[2].

A serious riot is reported in Oxford, and troops have been ordered there to put it down.

LONDON, Nov. 12—Evening.

The measures taken to suppress the disturbance in Oxford to-day, were effective, and the town is now quiet.

A FENIAN CONVICTED OF TREASON.

DUBLIN, Nov. 12—Evening.

The trial of Dr. Ispin for treasonable communication was concluded to-day. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty of treason and felony. The prisoner was subsequently sentenced to death. The claim of American citizenship. The court has not given judgment.

LOAN TO THE HONDURAS RAILWAY.

LONDON, Nov. 11.

A loan of one million pounds sterling to the Honduras Railway has been introduced in the House of Commons. The road is to be the connecting of a railway through Honduras, from Porto Cabello, on the Atlantic, to the Gulf of Fonseca, on the Pacific. The proposed route is 220 miles long, and the cost of construction will be about $6,000 per mile.

Wanderings.

DERBY, Nov. 12.

The steamer Ville de Paris, from New York, arrived this morning.

QUEENSTOWN, Nov. 12.

The steamer City of Paris, from New York, arrived this morning.

LONDONDERRY, Nov. 11.

The steamer United Kingdom, from New York, arrived to-day.

France.

NAPOLEON AND HIS NEW BRITISH MINISTER.

PARIS, Nov. 10.

Lord Lyons, the new English Minister to Paris, presented his credentials to the Emperor to-day, and was cordially received. Mutual compliments were exchanged on the raising of the ambassadorial rank of the English mission. Napoleon and France to the peace and civilization of the world.

Prussia.

A DEPUTY IMPRISONED FOR REMARKS MADE IN THE DIET.

BERLIN, Nov. 11.

Herr Twesten, a Prussian Deputy, has been tried, and sentenced to two years' imprisonment, for remarks on the judiciary made by him in the Diet.

Portugal.

PARLIAMENTARY PROROGATION AT LISBON.

LISBON, Nov. 11.

It is understood that the United States Steamer Dale, under the command of Admiral Farragut will remain some time.

Switzerland.

POSTAL TREATY WITH THE UNITED STATES APPROVED.

BERNE, Nov. 11.

The Swiss Council has approved the new postal treaty negotiated with the United States of America.

BY MAIL.

Winding Up of the English and American Bank of London—Closure of the London, Chatham & Dover Railway Company Since 1862—Great Protest and Demonstration in Ulster—News from the Provinces—Fenian Executions.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12—The steamship Scotia, with left Liverpool on the 31 of November, and Queenstown on the 1st inst., arrived this morning at Halifax.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the London and American Bank of London, a resolution was passed to wind up the affairs of the bank. The voluntary winding up was confirmed.

The London, Chatham and Dover Railway (Canada) Railway Company, it was stated that the total amount of gross receipts for the year 1867 was £1,000, in American currency, amounted to £11,000.

A great Protestant demonstration took place at Dublin on the 5th inst., in honor of the birth of the Marquis of Downshire's grandchild.

The Queen's speech on proroguing Parliament contained the following: The advance brigade of the Abyssinian expedition has reached Antalo, 400 miles from Zula. Adigrat will be established at Magdala, and the advance brigade will probably march from Antalo to Magdala, a distance of 180 miles, in October 1868, twenty-five months after leaving Zula. The whole force will leave Kairoke about the end of December.

The Chelsea, which has been a scene in many appointments, is now in a state of disagreement.

Choices of a virulent type has broken out in Cheltenham.

The detectives arrested a man named Mallale, charged with setting fire to the Crystal Palace, and eleven pounds of combustibles, and wearing an American army belt. Two others, named Gallagher and Shanahan, were also arrested, charged with an attempt to murder constables. They were remanded to-day, and kept quite silent in court. Warrants in the Boston case are also out.

Sir Roundell Palmers, who has served his time as Queen's counsel, has been promoted to New York Bar, Sir Stephen Lushington, and a host of others.

The Queen has been prorogued until February 6th, 1868, when it is expected that Parliament will be prorogued until May.

The Duke of Cambridge has been appointed Commander-in-Chief of the British army.

The Duke of Edinburgh has been appointed Admiral of the Fleet.

The Duke of Cambridge has been appointed Commander-in-Chief of the British army.

The Duke of Edinburgh has been appointed Admiral of the Fleet.

Lord Westbury, the English ex-Chancellor, is dead.

The Queen receives Australasian and Africans born here by barracks for troops sent to Liberia for guard against Fenian invasion.

Measures regulating wool by tare, the education of the people, and other matters tending to the freedom and enlightenment of the nation, have passed the Australian Parliament.

Sir G. Bowen is to succeed Gov. Gray as Governor of New Zealand.

The Italian Revolution.

KING VICTOR EMANUEL'S PROCLAMATION AGAINST THE GARIBALDIANS.

The Official Gazette, of Florence, published on Sunday, October 27, the subjoined proclamation from the King of Italy, the substance of which was subsequently telegraphed through the Atlantic cable:

"ITALIANS: Bands of refugees, organized and encouraged by the enemies of a party, without any nationality, have violated the Roman territory, and invaded the frontiers of the Pontifical State. The object of these bands is to overthrow the temporal power of the Pontiff, to which the solemn conventions and to international stipulations, sanctioned by the Parliament and by myself, have guaranteed the free exercise of the spiritual authority of the world.

"The pretexts that the standard raised in the territory which adjoins ours, and on which is inscribed 'Destruction to the temporal authority of the Pontiff,' is that of universal authority of Catholicism.

"This standard places the common country in the most serious danger, and the government, firmly resolved to wholly defend the honor of the nation, the dignity of the Pontiff, and the liberty of the Catholic world, has ordered the mobilization of two more divisions absolutely sufficient—two, also, is the active army.

"Italians, the moment is supreme. Let the citizens who are very illustrious, Judge Thomas C. Drummond, Judge Richard Prendergast, Judge Murray Nelson, Judge Thomas D. Logan, Judge Henry Booth, Judge Thomas Hoyne, Judge Buckner S. Morris, Judge Samuel M. Wilkeson, Judge Grant Goodrich, Judge Joseph E. Gary, Judge Thomas

Chicago Tribune

THE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES.

The Three Natural Combinations in Philadelphia.

The Basis for Union.

An Interesting and Important Speech.

[illegible]

MINNESOTA.

THE CHILD-MURDERS 1890.

MODERN FRENCH FASHIONS.

MODERN FRENCH FASHIONS.

Directions by a Frenchman.

The following articles on French fashion is from the pen of a Frenchman:

"To greatly portion of the women of our time have little or little, lost the sense of true elegance: they have for fancy for ought, in shape or hair-dressing, which should best fit on both face and figure, and most of their efforts have not [illegible]

COMMERCIAL.

MONETARY.

Treasury Drawing Nov. 10.

The rates of interest are as follows:

[illegible] and selling between banks of all cities. Some shipments of [illegible]

[illegible] with more dollar. Wheat was [illegible] declined 1@1½ cents. Oats were [illegible] but closed firm. Rye firm. Barley dull and 2@3c lower.

[illegible] better. The market opened firm and [illegible] advanced 5c 100 lbs and closed firm. Pork firmer, [illegible] Lard quiet and steady. Whiskey [illegible]

The following quotations were [illegible] Red Iowa, gold brokers':

[illegible]

Flour was a shade firmer. The [illegible] the closing prices in New York for Gold:

[illegible]

Wheat was steady at 1@2c higher, but [illegible] at 1@2c lower.

Corn was steady at 1@2c higher, though [illegible] at 1@2c lower.

Oats were [illegible] at 1@2c higher.

Rye firmer at [illegible]

Barley dull at 2@3c lower.

Pork was more active and [illegible] at 1@2c lower.

Lard quiet and [illegible] at 1@2c lower.

Whiskey [illegible] at 1@2c lower.

Freights quiet, but [illegible]

Boston Dry Goods Market.

From the Closest Jew.

Whether or [illegible] in regard to the [illegible] the market, which tended to [illegible] continued [illegible] somewhat [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

The Tribune.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1867.

THE CITY.

THE CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE.—Another session of the Board was held yesterday afternoon, at which a Committee on Arbitration was appointed.

BOARD OF TRADE.—A meeting of the Chicago Board of Trade will be held this afternoon, at 2½ o'clock, at the Corner Dearborn-station, for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year.

PERSONAL.—General W. T. Sherman, U. S. A., General G. M. Dodge, of Iowa, and H. B. Curtis, of Prairie du Chien, Wis., are at the Sherman-house; Hon. Wm. D. Sedgwick, of Wisconsin, were at the Tremont yesterday.

HUMORIST AND HALF-DOZEN ASPIRES.—The Prize-medal of the Hill-Orphan Asylum are urgently requested to meet at the House of Mr. J. Reynolds, No. 202 Fifth-avenue, This Evening, at 7½ o'clock, to Consult as to the Advisability of Selling the Same.

FOND HOPE.—The talented young musician and elocutionist, is gaining golden opinions in consolation of the War with: as to visit Chicago, and give a few Recitals from his Repertoire.

SUPERIOR.—Nine and really fresh is the quotation and these have sold by every day at 9, 10, and 11 cents per dozen. No. 176 Lake-street, keeps them. They are daily in receipt of large lots of eggs, and sell for the spot trade, and ship at a still lower rate.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—An old resident of the town of Niles, by the county, named Pengelly, accidentally shot himself in the hand on Monday last, while out hunting, by the bursting of a gun. A flock of wild pigeons flew over him, and he fired at them, when the gun burst, shattering the hand so badly that amputation was necessary. He has a wife and several children in comfortable circumstances.

THE KITCHEN.—One of the first requirements we have yet seen set above by Secretary, Hon. Thurlow Weed. Those in search of an elegant Stock or mansion cannot fail to be suited with Kitchen stock. A number of Kitchens, all of the best material, new patterns, and well finished, are now on hand, and will be sold at reasonable prices.

LAUNDRY OF VALUABLE CLOTHING.—On Monday there was stolen a number of valuable silk dresses and shawls reported from the boarding house No. 78 State street. The property was owned by a boarder, Miss D. C. Brown, who had it in charge upon the roof, with some wash. No clue to the property has been discovered.

A WORLD PHENOMENON.—Yesterday morning Mrs. Mary Walker was assaulted on the opposite to Clark street bridge, waiting for the bridge to swing, when she was struck over the head with a loading shovel, she says, a woman inside the house, and severely injured, trying to insert her hand in the window to unlock the door, which was closed for an object. The woman was taken into custody, when she was released on Ellen Hamilton, who was committed for trial in default of bail in the sum of $1,000.

FIRES.—The alarm sounded yesterday forenoon was caused by a fire in a barn located in the rear of No. 126 North Kinzie street. It was evidently of incendiary origin and had to be put out by a stream of water. The fire was fortunately extinguished before any serious damage had been done to the stock.

The alarm sounded from box No. 146, was caused by a fire in a chimney of a house on Ashland-avenue, near the Milwaukee-road. Another alarm from box No. 6, sounded about 4 o'clock this morning, was caused by a fire which broke out in the roof of a frame building on Lake-street, near Wells. The fire was soon put out by a stream from a fire in the chimney extinguished with a few pails of water.

CITIZEN TROTTING CONTEST.—On Monday a match was made by Mr. Price, of the horse Hardscrabble, and Mr. A. Brown, owner of Fanchon, for $100 a side, each horse to be driven in the buggy, to weigh 300 pounds. In the first heat Fanchon got to the home in the place, to which Hardscrabble objected, on the ground of interference, and claimed the heat. In the second heat Fanchon was driven by Mr. Brown, and Hardscrabble by Mr. Lee, from driving upon the Archer Park, both horses were distanced. The first race will probably come off to-morrow, and the second on Saturday, both horses having been driven in consequence of the match, and in speeding circles between the two horses.

ASSESSMENT ROLL